- If ICS blocks the Card, it will notify the Business and/or the Cardholder of this as soon as possible, unless doing so should represent a breach of the law or legitimate security interests. The Card expires no later than the expiry date printed on it. ICS may from time to time provide a 25 new Card as a replacement for the Card. The old Card may be decired invalid by ICS. The new Card will be attached to a document and sent to the Cardholder. The use of the new Card is governed by the general terms and conditions contained in this document, which will subsequently be 2.6
 - regarded as forming part of the Agreement. Once the Agreement has been terminated or the Card has been blocked: (a) the full outstanding balance of the Card becomes due and payable with immediate effect; (b) the Card may no longer be used by the Cardholder,
 (c) the Card has become invalid;
 (d) the Card may be refused or withdrawn by ICS, a Merchant or bank.

- Article 3. General obligations of ICS
- ICS undertakes to provide its services with the greatest possible care. cle 4. General obligations of the Business and/or the Cardholder
- The Business is responsible for the use of the Card and for compliance with the Agreement by the 41 Business and the Cardholder
- The Card may solely be used for professional or business purposes by the Cardholder. The Company 4.2 must verify that the Card is used for business purposes
- 43 The Cardholder must store the Card carefully and in a safe place and make sure that others cannot ee or get hold of the Card.
- When using the Card, the Cardholder should at all times check if his or her own Card is returned. 4.4
- The Cardholder should check regularly if the Card is still in his or her possession. ICS may from time to time issue instructions regarding the safe use of the Card, and about kee the pin code or other personal security codes confidential, the use of Biometrics as well as eping instructions about how to properly secure the devices you use for Mijn ICS Business and the ICS Business App. These instructions must be complied with by the Business and the Cardholder. General instructions can be found at www.icsbusiness.nl/veiligheid.

- The Business and the Cardholder should at once inform ICS of any changes to their contact information (including the e-mail address) as well as of any other changes that are relevant to the Agreement. The Business should at once inform ICS of any changes to the financial situation of the Business. ICS may request the Business to provide information about the financial situation of the Business, or request the Business and/or he Cardholder to provide information about the use of the Card. The 4.6
- 47 Business must provide this information to ICS.
- The Business and the Cardholder are obliged at all times to show proof of their identity to ICS in accordance with the statutory requirements and within that context to provide their full cooperation 48 to ICS. Whenever a request to that effect is made, the Business must satisfy ICS that it has complied with the statutory identification requirements in relation to the Cardholder(s). The Business must store all identification data in accordance with the statutory requirements in such a manner that they may be accessed by ICS or a regulator for a period of 5 years after the termination of the Aareement.
- Whenever correspondence is sent to the Business by ICS, the Business is under an obligation to forward this to the Cardholder if it is addressed to that party and/or concerns the use of the Card. Article 5. Pin code and other personalized security features
- The Card is provided with a pin code. This pin code has been chosen by the Cardholder or was issued to the Cardholder automatically. Given instructions for choosing a pin code must be followed carefully. This pin code is personal and non-transferable, as is the Card.
- The Cardholder must not disclose the pin code to anyone, including relatives, housemates colleagues and employees of ICS. The Cardholder needs to ensure that others cannot see the entering of the pin code. The Cardholder must not write down the pin code on the Card or on any document that 5.2 is kept with the Card. Should the Cardholder make an annotation of the pin code, he must ensure that others cannot recognise it as such or can identify its use.
- Any additional personalised security codes concerning the Card, such as a login name, (3D Secure) 53 password, Acces Code, Biometrics or SMS Code may also only be used by the Business and the Cardholder and must be kept secret as well.

Article 6. Loss, theft and improper use

- The Business and/or the Cardholder must notify ICS by telephone of any loss, theft or (suspected) misuse of the Card, pin code and/or other personalised security codes or Biometrics. The Business and/or the Cardholder must do this immediately after he has discovered this or could have discovered this, for example by checking the account summaries or the summary in Mijn ICS Business or the ICS Business App. The Business and/or the Cardholder must confirm this notification immediately to ICS in writing and must file a report with the police.
- 6.2 Once the notification as referred to in article 6.1 has been made, no risk will be incurred by the Business for the subsequent use of the Card, unless fraud has been committed by the Business and/or the Cardholder or in cases of intent or gross negligence on the part of the Business and/or the Cardholder. In that case the Business will be held liable for all losses resulting from the loss, theft and/or improper use of the Card, the pin code and/or any other personalised security codes as well as on the security of the devices used for Mijn ICS Business or the ICS Business App. Gross negligence in any case arises if one or any of the obligations arising from articles 4., 5. and 6.1 have not been complied with by the Business and/or the Cardholder.

have not bee Article 7. Card fee

The Business must pay the annual Card fee, unless agreed otherwise. The amount of the Card fee is stated in the Documentation. The Card fee forms part of the outstanding balance gov article 14. If the Agreement is terminated prematurely, the Card fee will not be refunded.

Article 8. Data and personal Data

ICS uses the personal data of the Cardholder and the Business data data in accordance with our Privacy Statement, which may be found at www.icsbusiness.nl/privacystatement.

Article 9. Amending the Agreement

ICS is entitled to amend the Agreement within the limits set by law. The Business and/or the Card-holder will be informed about this 30 days before the Agreement is amended. The Business and/or the Cardholder must notify ICS in writing within these 30 days if he disagrees with the amendment. In that case the Business and/or the Cardholder is entitled to terminate the Agree If the Business and/or the Cardholder do not terminate the Agreement within these 30 days, he is considered to have accepted the amendment.

- Article 10. Making payments with the Card

 The Card may be used worldwide for making payments to Merchants. The Card may also be used for cash withdrawals from affiliated banks and/or from cash machines. When the Card is inserted into a cash machine, card reader or imprinter for the purpose of making payments or cash withdrawals and the pin code has been entered or the signature has been placed, the Cardholder is deemed to have agreed to the payment. With some machines (such as toll gate machines or parking machines) the Cardholder is deemed to have accepted the payment by the mere inserting of the Card without the pin code having been entered or the signature placed. When a purchase is made through the internet, by telephone or in a manner similar thereto, the Cardholder will be deemed to have agreed to the payment by having provided the Card details, allowing the payment transaction to be performed, and, if requested, by entering a 3D Secure Password and SMS Code or approve of the transaction in the ICS Business App using Biometrics or the Access Code. If ICS has issued a new Card ICS can inform merchants that have joined Automatic Billing Updater about the new Card details.
- Accepting the payment inplies that the amount in question will be reaved user to be and the art of the possible to cancel payments, cash withdrawals and payment orders once the transaction has been 10.2 authorized.
- In case your Card is provided with NFC, the Card may be used for making contactless payments to Merchants that have a Contactless payment terminal at their disposal. Before the first contactless payment can be made the Card needs to be inserted in the card reader first. When the Card is held 10.3 against the Contactless payment terminal after that the Cardholder is deemed to have accepted the payment. Within the EU the Cardholder must enter the pincode after a total amount of contactless payments of ${\mathbb C}$ 150. The Contactless payment terminal will indicate whether or not the payment has been approved. Accepting the payment implies that the amount in question will be charged to the Card. The use of contactless payments may be subject to additional user conditions and limitations.
- 10.4 ICS does not guarantee the permanent, uninterrupted use of the Card. The use of the Card after all is dependent on a great number of external factors, such as the collaboration of Merchants and the performance of computer or telecommunication systems operated by us or by third parties. Moreover, the balance of the Card may be inadequate and cash withdrawals may be limited to a maximum amount per day. ICS shall not be liable for the inability to make use of the Card at all, in time or in full
- When the Cardholder performs a payment transaction with the Card, ICS will pay the amount in 10.5 question on behalf of the Cardholder to the Merchant in question. Merchants and/or affiliated banks may impose additional or special requirements with regard to
- accepting the Card, such as demanding proof of identity or charging transaction fee

- Article 11. Spending limit

 ICS determines the spending limit. The Cardholder must not exceed this spending limit. The amount, if any, by which the spending limit is exceeded, is due and payable at once. ICS is entitled
- In contrast of the spending limit with immediate effect. If there is a positive balance on the Card the Cardholder may spend the spending limit plus the positive balance. The maximum positive balance the Business is allowed to have is $\pounds 2,500,000$.

Article 12. Foreign currency, transaction fees and other charges

- 12.1 Payments and cash withdrawals in foreign currency are converted into euros on the basis of the Exchange rate on the date on which the payment or the cash withdrawal is processed by ICS. A surcharge applies of 2,5% Processing depends on the time the payment or cash withdrawal has been communicated to us. ICS may change the Exchange rate with immediate effect and without prior notification. Information about the applicable Exchange Rate can be viewed at www.icsbusiness.nl/wisselkoersen. ICS does not send separate electronic messages regarding currency exchange transactions performed by ICS or the Exchange rate used.
- For cash withdrawals made from cash machines ICS charges a feel if there is a positive balance on the Card and the withdrawal is made entirely out of the positive balance 1% on the amount withdrawn will be charged, with a maximum of & 1,50. If the amount drawn exceeds the positive 122 balance 4% will be charged on the amount that exceeds the positive balance, with a minimum of $\mathfrak C$ 4,50. If there is no positive balance also 4% on the amount withdrawn will be charged, with a minimum of € 4,50.
- Charges apply for the replacement of Card in the case of loss or damage, except if the Bussiness or the Card-holder cannot be faulted for this loss or damage. 12.3

Article 13. Account statement

- A monthly account statement will be sent or will be made available in Mijn ICS Business. A charge of £1,50 applies for each account statement sent by regular mail The account statement states all new expenses and amounts received for that month. The term 'new expenses' includes any charges owed to ICS by the Business, such as the Card fee, the Exchange rate, transaction charges, penalties other charges and interest. The account statement also specifies the outstanding balance for that month.
- 13.2 If the outstanding balance is paid by way of direct debit, the account statement will also specify the date on which the bankaccount of the Business will be debited for the amount in question, which transaction will take place within 14 days from the date mentioned on the account statement.
- 13.3 The Business and/or the Cardholder must immediately check the account statement received or placed in Mijn ICS Business, or in any case within 30 days from the account statement date. All transactions and payments may also be viewed in the ICS Business App.
- 13.4 After a period of 2 months from the date of the account statement the contents of those account statements will be deemed to have been approved by the Business and/or the Cardholder, without prejudice to the right to dispute such amounts as stated in article 15. ICS may rectify any mistakes, or alculation mistakes, after this period.
- 13.5 If the Business and/or the Cardholder require any additional account statement or information, ICS may charge a fee for this. The Business and/or the Cardholder will be informed in advance what that charge will be.

Article 14. Payment to ICS

- The account statement details the outstanding balance of the Card that has to be repaid to ICS by the Business. Debiting of the bankaccount will take place within 14 days from the date of the account statement. If no direct debit authorization has been issued, the Business is obliged to repay the outstanding balance to ICS within 21 days from the date of the account statement unless agreed otherwise.
- 142 Interest is charged on every amount charged to the Card. The following amounts may be charged to the Card, any payment, cash withdrawals, money transfers and costs such as the Card fee, Exchange rate, transaction charges, other charges and interest. Interest will be charged on payments and cash withdrawals starting from the dates they were made. Interest will be calculated on the - money transfers and the costs starting from the dates drawer of their entry. The interest is calculated on a daily basis. Depending on the number of days in a month, the interest amount may therefore vary per month. The interest equals the statutory interest for non-commercial transactions (which may be found on wetten.overheid.nl by entering the search 'Besluit wettelijke rente' (Statutory Interest Decree)) plus the maximum number of percentage points as contained in section 4 of 'Besluit Kredietvergoeding' (Lending Rate Decree). This Decree may be found on the site wetten overheid.nl. When interest is charged, the interest rate will be mentioned on the account statement. ICS may charge a lower interest rate. ICS charges interest on a monthly basis. The interest amount is a separate item on the account
- 14.4
- ICS will not charge any interest if the outstanding balance. ICS will not charge any interest if the outstanding balance given on an account statement is r in full within 21 days from the date mentioned on the account statement or if agreed otherwise 14.5 that case the interest is waived. To qualify for such a waiver, each time the full outstanding balance given on an account statement must be repaid. If the full outstanding balance given on an account statement is not repaid, interest will be charged
- on the full outstanding balance of that account statement, also on the part that was repaid within 21 days. In addition, interest will be charged immediately on all subsequent amounts charged to the Card. This interest cannot be waived. There will be a re-qualification for a waiver if the full outstanding palance of a subsequent account statement is repaid within 21 days again.
- If the full outstanding balance given on an account statement isn't repaid within 21 days from the date of the account statement, ICS is entitled to block the Card. 14.7
- If the full outstanding balance given on an account statement isn't repaid within 21 days from the 14.8 date mentioned on the account statement an additional fee of \mathbb{C} 5 will be owned by the Business. Amounts received will be used to pay firstly interest and costs, and secondly the principal amount
- 14.9
- 14.10 ICS may change the interest rate with immediate effect. The Business will be notified when this change
- If ICS decides to take action in order to recover a debt, all related costs will be charged to the Business 14.11 The costs are set at 15% on the total amount due, with a minimum of € 45. If the loss suffered by ICS is than 15% of the total amount due, ICS will be entitled also to recover the excess amount.

Article 15. Disputed payments

- If the Business and/or the Cardholder disagree with any amount on the account statement, they may dispute this amount. ICS must be informed of any disputed amounts in writing at the earlies possible moment after receipt of the account statement, by means of a notification stating the full and substantiated reasons for disputing the amounts concerned. A Merchant not having performed its obligations towards the Cardholder, for example by supplying defective goods or services, does not constitute a reason for disputing an amount. Amounts cannot be disputed either as a result of the Card having been stolen or lost or in the case of improper use having been made of the Card. Those cases are governed by the provisions of article 6. If sufficiently reasoned and substantiated arguments for disputing an amount have been stated within
- 14 days from the date of the account statement, the amount in guestion will at once be credited to the Card, under the reservation that the amount in question will be charged to the Card once again, if it should prove to have been wrongly disputed. No amounts are credited to the Card if, in the view of ICS, there is no reasonable chance of the challenge being successful.

- If ICS should require more information or documentation, such a request must have been complied 15.3 with within 10 days at the latest
- Failing to comply with any of your obligations under this article will result in the loss of your right to dispute any amounts. 15.4

Article 16. Other payment service providers

The Business may engage an account information service provider for viewing account information at Mijn ICS Business. The account information service provider is responsible for the services it provides.

If ICS cannot establish whether the account information service provider is authorized to view account information, ICS will not permit it to do so. 16.2

Article 17. Liability (a) in relation to be liable for any damage, regardless of the legal ground on which the claim is based:
 (a) in relation to products or services paid for by the Cardholder with the Card;
 (b) resulting from the Card being blocked, withdrawn or invalidated; 17.1

- If the Card has been blocked for the reason given in Article 2.3 (a), a claim cannot be filed under the insurances until the blockage has been lifted. 18.6

Article 19. Delivery and Internet guarantee

- Delivery guarantee: if a product paid for with the Card has not been delivered on the agreed delivery date, ICS will repay the amount concerned to the Business, provided the following conditions have been satisfied:
 - (a) The Cardholder has paid the amount of the purchase directly to the Merchant that has to deliver the product.
 - (b) The Cardholder himself or herself has made an attempt to resolve the delivery issue with the Merchant first
 - (c) The request for repayment must have been received by ICS no later than three months after the agreed delivery date along with the sales receipt of the product paid with the Card. (d) The Cardholder or the Business is not entitled to claim the purchase amount under any insurance
 - (e) It is not a payment to or deposit in an investment account (including crypto currency).

(ICS will repay the amount within 30 days from receipt of the request, unless the Merchant in the course of that period delivers the product after all or refunds the purchase price. The delivery guarantee will in any case lapse 1 year after the date on which the payment was made by the -Cardholder.

Internet guarantee: if an internet payment has been made with the Card that has not been authorized by the Cardholder or if incorrect amounts are charged, the amount in question will be repaid by ICS, provided the Card was in the Cardholder's possession at the time the payment was made and the payment has been disputed in accordance with article 15. Article 20. Other provisions

- The Card remains the property of ICS, ICS is authorized to assign the Agreement to a third party 201 The Business and/or the Cardholder agree to this, provided the relevant statutory frame conditions have been met.
- 20.2 ICS is not obliged to accept applications for an Agreement, or an amendment to the Agreement. ICS may amend, extend or terminate the payment options of the Card. ICS is entitled to make payments dependent on its approval before being accepted by Merchants.
- 20.3 The records of ICS will serve as full proof to the Business and/or the Cardholder. The Business and/
